| ТРИ ПРЕДЛОЖЕНИЯ: 1. Введение и постановка проблемы.Контрастный мнения (свое мнение здесь в норме не высказывается). | Should people be allowed to keep exotic animals at home or not? Why not? I doubt whether the question may be answered in general without any exception.  |

| 3. 2 КОНКРЕТНЫХ АРГУМЕНТА или напротив – общее (не слишком детализированное) изложение собственной позиции.              | From my point of view, From my point of view, there is nothing extraordinary about having a cat or dog kept as a pet at home.(=I have nothing against anyone having a cat or dog kept as a pet at home). A pet brings joy. And you can show your fondness or kindness. I also have no objections to keeping a parrot at home. Is it exotic? Is it not?  |

| 5. 2-3 (контр)аргумента (или один детализированный и мощный) противоположной стороны  | My opponents [ə'pəʊnənt] have two strong arguments in support of forbidding keeping exotic animals at home. And I have to accept both of them. First of all, exotic animals can be unpredictable. One never knows what to expect from them. So one is never prepared to react properly to the exotic animal's extraordinary behaviour. What is more, it is the fact that exotic animals can be dangerous. And that's true, especially if you treat them badly or just don't know how to take care of them. |

| «ПОСЛЕДНИЙ АРГУМЕНТ» 7. Возражение оппонентам и защита собственной позиции   | As for me, I don't share the preconception of animals are evil by nature. Contrary to what most people believe, almost all animals can live a life without doing harm to people, if they have enough to eat and their living conditions are quite normal.   |

| ТРИ РАСПРОСТРАНЕННЫХ ПРЕДЛОЖЕНИЯ 9. Обоснованное заключение  | All things considered, it goes without saying for me that a personality of Man plays the key role in the matter.Personally, I firmly believe that an irresponsible person should not be allowed to keep any animals, however exotic or not they may seem. To sum up, one can keep any animal at home under certain conditions. So on the whole, I say, the question of keeping exotic pets cannot be answered in general, but the question of man's responsibility should.       |
