

Category	Scoring criteria	Points	Score
Organisation	Presentation is logically organized into introduction, body (including details, points of view, arguments, examples, pictures, diagrams, statistics etc.) and conclusion.	10
	All the elements are well-structured and easy to follow.	10
Content	Material included is relevant to the task.	10
Presentation Skills	Speaker's intonation, accent, and voice pitch are natural and clear. He speaks fluently. No / very limited use of filler words ("umm," "like," etc.). No reading is allowed!	10
	Speaker maintains eye contact with audience, body language is appropriate.	10
	Speaker is within the time limit (3:50 – 4:00 min).	5
	Speaker understands the questions and can provide promptly clear logical answers.	20
Language	Vocabulary: use of topic related words; correct use of collocations.	15
	Grammar: appropriate choice and correct use of basic and advanced grammar structures.	10	